

Corporate powers.

Unlawful for county commissioners to grant retail liquor license without written consent of town commissioners.

Fire company.

Engines, &c.

Special tax.

Limitation of tax.

sixty-one, entitled "an act to incorporate the town of Enfield," be amended by striking out in section one of said act in the twelfth line thereof the words "the one hundred and eleventh chapter of the Revised Code," and inserting in lieu thereof, "chapter sixty-two of The Code," and by adding after the word "towns" in the thirteenth line of said section the words "and cities."

SEC. 2. That section three of said act be amended by striking out in the second line thereof the words "court of pleas and quarter sessions," and inserting in lieu thereof the words "county commissioners."

SEC. 3. The commissioners of said town shall be authorized and empowered to provide for the organization of a fire company for the said town of Enfield, under such rules and regulations as they may prescribe not inconsistent with the laws of this State. And for the more efficient work of such fire company, they shall have power to purchase and provide the necessary machines, engines, motive power and other appliances suitable for use by the said fire company, and they are further empowered for the purposes in this section specified to levy and collect on the taxables of said town, including real and personal estate and privileges, such sum or sums of money as may be necessary to pay for and keep in repair the said machine, motive power and appliances, but the said commissioners shall be limited in their power so that they shall not levy and collect in any one year more than fifteen cents on the hundred dollars' worth of real and personal estate, and in same proportion on other taxables and privileges.

SEC. 4. This act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

In the General Assembly read three times, and ratified this the 7th day of March, A. D. 1885.